

VI BADMINTON SUMMER CAMP

28 august to 1 september 2023

CALDAS DA RAINHA | PORTUGAL

The Portuguese Badminton Federation will hold the VI Badminton Summer Camp 2023, a project that combines badminton with fun activities and we look forward to welcoming you.

The VI Badminton Summer Camp 2023, will take place at the Badminton High Performance Sports Centre in Caldas da Rainha - Portugal, and combines bi-daily practice sessions with outdoor leisure activities for players born between 2008 and 2000 who practice at least 5 hours a week and regularly compete in national competitions. Training will be guided by a team of experienced coaches, the Portuguese coaches Diogo Silva and Fernando Silva and this year with a new invited guest coach Judith Meulendijks (NED).

Judith Meulendijks

INVITED COACH

Judith Meulendijks is a dutch former player that stated playing badminton in her home town and won in 1994 Dutch Junior Championships in the girls' doubles with Antoinette Achterberg, and in 1995 in the mixed doubles with Dicky Palyama. In 1996 she joined the national team and at the same year won the national women's singles title.

She won the Dutch National Badminton Championships three times in the Women's singles category (1996, 2008 & 2012) and the Women's doubles two times (2006 & 2007) with Brenda Beenhakker. In 2007, she won the gold medal at the European Junior Championships in the girls' singles event.

In 2000, she competed at the Sydney Olympics in women's singles and was beaten in round of 32 by Ye Zhaoying, of China, 11-3, 9-11, 11-7. Judith Meulendijks was a part of the Dutch team who won the 2002 bronze and 2006 silver at the Uber Cup.

She ended her international singles career reaching the finals at her home in the Dutch Open event in 2012 where she lost to Czech player Kristina Gavnholt.

Judith Meulendijks played for many clubs in the Netherlands (BC Phoenix, BC Geldrop, Pelikaan Tilburg, BC Nuenen, BCO Bali & BC Duinwijck), Germany (FC Langenfeld & Bayer Uerdingen with which she won the German Bundesliga title in 2002 & 2003) and Denmark (Team Aarhus & Vendsyssel). She was Assistant National Coach for the Senior National Team in Switzerland from 2014 to 2019.
